

WindowTainment® for Real Estate

The complete system for efficient real estate offers

Print-Exposés were yesterday, WindowTainment® is today

Have you ever thought about replacing your Print-Exposés? WindowTainment® for Real Estate offers you exactly that. Maintain all contents of the display devices of your branches in one place with the WindowTainment® Manager. In this manner you supply your complete branch network prompt with the actual real estate offers for your customers. Save yourselves thus the printouts of single exposés as well as the laborious way to your branches to exchange single exposés by hand and you save in this manner precious time and money.

In addition, WindowTainment® for Real Estate offers you an optimum means to the customer contact. Buying real estate always concerns an emotional decision; hence, you use the possibility to present to your customers your real estates in a new and attractive way. WindowTainment® for Real Estate demonstrates your offers in a new and attractive light. Through electronic binding you have the possibility to offer your customers a by far bigger offer of real estates than you have till now.

In addition, you can allow your customer an easy, direct contact to an agent by means of e-mail notification.

Make it easy on yourself

The service and care of the WindowTainment® for Real Estate application is truly simple. In only a few steps you have the possibility to generate and maintain your real estates and devices in the WindowTainment® Manager. The complete care of the Manager takes place in your Internet browser. No additional software is required. Once you have created your real estate offer, a single mouse click is enough to update all display devices in your branches with the current real estate offers.

For your customers the usage of the WindowTainment® real estate application on your display devices, is even easier. The picture carousel as well as the category buttons can be used intuitively by means of touching the shop-window with only one finger. It doesn't get any easier!

The appropriate system for every office

As an eye catcher the 50 inch WindowTainment® System is in particular suitable for exclusive and representative locations, for example your head office. In addition to the „behind“ the shop-window solution, we can offer you our interactive E-Poster with touch function for the blanket coverage of your real estate offers. Our interactive E-Poster is a terminal displayed in your entrance hall which can be used the same as the WindowTainment® solution; by means of touch. Particularly the E-Poster is suited for smaller branches without interaction. This presents your real estate offers in an automated continuous loop. WindowTainment® for Real Estate supports you perfectly in promoting your entire real estate offers successfully and efficiently.

And of course all our solutions can be administered combined and centrally with the WindowTainment® Manager simply and safely
